BILL ZECHMANN

Founder of Principles for Living Ministries

Bill Zechmann founded Principles for Living in 2010. Bill started this ministry to share the Gospel and encourage Christians in their spiritual lives. Bill's greatest joy comes from knowing Jesus and helping others discover the love of Christ. While serving as a missionary in the Philippines, Kenya, and Liberia, Bill ministered to crowds of thousands where hundreds came forward to begin a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Bill also provided Biblical training for pastors in these countries. Bill conducts personal growth seminars and evangelistic crusades in the United States as well.

Bill's outreach includes a daily radio program and a daily online teaching series (Principles for Living on Facebook). Bill also ministers through two books he authored (Defining Your Character: Principles for Christian Living and Swimming Upstream: Principles for Living), along with 40 booklets for spiritual growth and a CD of hymns (I'm Coming Home).

Bill was born in the small rural area of Foster, Nebraska. He is a serial entrepreneur, having founded several companies as well as this ministry. He holds BAs in Biblical Studies and Human Resources' Management. Bill is joined in ministry by his wife Lorraine who previously served as CEO and President of Stonecroft Ministries. Lorraine also served as a missionary in Moscow, Russia and New York City and received her BS from Duke University and MBA from the Wharton School, the University of Pennsylvania. Bill and Lorraine currently reside in Overland Park, Kansas, along with their daughter, Corinne Kalal. Bill and Lorraine were both widowed and recently married. Between them, they have 6 children and 5 grandchildren.

Principles for Living is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, nondenominational organization.
