Dear Program Director,

We are excited to present the Lamplighter Theatre audio drama, Dashed to Pieces! Set in the days of Ancient Rome, Dashed to Pieces is an exciting story filled with action, intrigue, and peril.

Roman General Virgilius is faced with the difficult decision to profess the name of His God while risking the safety of his family. As his story unfolds, you will find yourself on a vicarious journey with uncommon characters such as the tortured slave Seyd, the deeply wounded and idolatrous widow, Livia, the self-absorbed materialist, Phebe, and the vengeful Centurion Varro.

The lives of these five individuals are wrapped up in one cataclysmic event as the jealous centurion Varro throws them out of their home due to their faith. As each character represents our own inner selves, listeners will be faced with their own decision of faith or denial. See how those who are willing to forsake all, can spark a revolution of change in those closest to them.

In the production of this radio drama, we saw God at work from start to finish and we stand in awe by his many answers to prayer! And so, we are thrilled to present, Dashed to Pieces!

Blessings,

The Lamplighter Theatre Team
