The Strordinary Little Maid PROGRAM TRACK SHEETS

Dear Program Director,

Sometimes I'm so busy and life is going so fast, I fail to notice.

I run to the store to get something quickly, I'm focused on "get-in-and-get-out," and...I'm oblivious to the people around me. And yet, someone near me is hurting, someone over there is wounded, someone right next to me needs Jesus.

And then came A Strordinary Little Maid. This story woke me up to the people in the blur. Peggy Perkins is an ordinary maid with an extraordinary ability to share the Good News with people. She shares the gospel in the most unusual—and sometimes very humorous—ways.

One time, Peggy approaches a rich widow whose words have been echoing in my heart ever since: "You're the first person I ever met in my life who cared for my soul." This hit home. How many people right around me have never had anyone care for their soul? All it would take is a question, a moment to take notice, a caring comment, to open the conversation. All it would take is to listen to the Holy Spirit's whisper.

We pray this 'stordinary story will do the same for you, and awaken your heart to the people in the blur.

Blessings,

The Lamplighter Team
