What's New

This was the first show recorded at our Lamplighter Studios in New York
6 episodes

Dear Program Director,

Welcome to The Giant Killer—the very first show recorded at our new Lamplighter Studios in Mr. Morris, New York.

I've been writing producing audio dramas for over twenty years, and I believe this is the most powerful one yet! The Giant Killer is the story of a young knight named Fides, who must conquer the giants of Sloth and Selfishness, Untruth, Hate and Pride.

As this story unfolds, you'll become acutely aware of the very real battle for the souls of our children—with very real "giants." But take heart. You can equip your children to conquer these giants with the Sword of the Spirit.

We're grateful to God for his hand on this production. Already people are telling us how this story is affecting them in significant ways—check out what they're saying on the next page.

Thank you for being a faithful member of our Lamplighter Theatre family over the years. I want you to know what a beautiful blessing it's been to work on this show alongside you! I was just sharing with Mark Hamby, our Executive Producer, how Lamplighter Theatre has played such an important part of my life—an integral part of my journey with God.

Blessings,

The Lamplighter Team

Reviews on The Giant Killer from listeners:

"One of the BEST audios to teach the virtues and vices of scripture. Thank you for investing your resources into this generation!" Sam

"In this busy, confusing, and frustrating time, it is so encouraging to have a realistic presentation of the Blessing in following our Great GOD and Loving Savior! May it please the Father to Bless the Lamplighter Organization!!" Sandy and Frank

"The whole family listened to this while traveling. My husband said this audio theater is his new favorite. To my great surprise, our 10 year old identified each giant before the story line revealed them by name. Our 13 year old chuckled at each giant with new found wisdom and self realization. I found the changing setting truly kept my attention. The story engaged my mind with it's metaphoric story within a story while showing life application. Once I recognize the brilliant morning sky and give thanks to God for the day, I get my weary self out of bed a little quicker to avoid a few battles with giants...myself. What a delight on this demanding journey! Highly recommend!" Audrey

"One of the most incredible audio stories done by Lamplighter! It had an immediate impact on all of us as we listened...I cannot recommend this audio highly enough. The quality of the recording and the message it carries will stay with you for a long time! It also will make an excellent gift for both saved and unsaved family members and friends." Thank you, Pete

"After hearing this drama I had to call someone at Lamplighter and tell them about my experience. I have never heard anything quite like this before...a story within a story and I don't know which of the stories had a greater impact. I didn't realize until the very end that a miracle had taken place and that once again, God was working all things together for good! I don't know how you reach this kind of level in the dramatic arts, but I do believe that you have just set a new standard for audio drama! That saying, I was so excited to hear that you are already working on Giant Killer 2!!!! Whoa! Please consider including the Giant of Inattentiveness for my husband! In the meantime, I'll fight the rest of the Giants that are in my life!" Martha
