Dear Program Director,

Life is one big joke to Kelly Nash. Brimming with mischief and armed with a twinkle in his eyes, Kelly has one major flaw—he doesn't think! His pranks and capers often harm those closest to him. What will it take for Kelly to finally start thinking?

Thankfully, there is One who has never stopped thinking about him...and he is about to get Kelly's attention! Swept away in the whirlwind of life, and a flood that could move mills and mountains, Kelly has a choice to make: start thinking or die!

Blessings,

The Lamplighter Team
