Behind the Scenes Bonus Feature—Part 6

Dear Program Director,

“Following God’s will is always right...but it’s not always easy.”

Seventeen-year-old Walter not only says this, he lives it. After his missionary father dies, Walter is left alone in the desert. A thrill-seeking Irish adventurer, Dermot Denis, joins him on a quest to Afghanistan.

Walter’s passion is to see Afghans come to know Jesus. It’s a mission that could cost him everything. Walter must fight off a cheetah, a band of Muslim kidnappers, and a tribal chief intent on killing them both.

But Walter’s biggest challenge comes when he is rescued and offered seminary training in London, all the money he could wish for, and a beautiful woman to marry. Will he choose what his friends see as blessings from God? Or will he go back to witness to the very Afghans who almost killed him?

Welcome to a world where knowing Jesus is a matter of life and death. Escape from The Eagle’s Nest may be a story from the 1800s, but it could very well be a story from today’s headlines, as we learn how to approach Muslims with the Good News of Jesus.

This is a six-part show that includes a special behind-the-scenes Bonus Feature in Part 6. You’ll hear the remarkable drama behind the drama as Executive Producer Mark Hamby interviews Director Patrick Powell.
